

For Immediate Release

For further information please call:
(818) 548-9345

MASHDOTS COLLEGE

Announces Spring 2010

Schedule of Courses

Mashdots College's Spring 2010 Semester courses are now open for enrollment. Courses range from Armenian language (elementary, intermediate and advanced) to Armenian Linguistics (3 courses); Armenian Diaspora; Translation and Interpretation-Armenian, Arabic and English; Medical Billing (4 courses); Computer Education (6 courses) Theology (2 courses); Early Childhood Education (8 courses); Psychology (4 courses); English as a Second Language (beginning, intermediate and advanced); Paralegal Studies (4 courses), Foreign Languages (Arabic, Farsi and Spanish), Business Administration (4 courses), Political Science (4 courses), Teacher Education (4 courses), Real Estate Management (2 courses), Hospitality Administration and Tourism (2 courses), Social Work (2 courses) The Spring Semester commences on February 8, 2010.

The College offers the following Bachelor of Arts and Bachelor of Science degree programs: Armenian Studies, Teacher Education-Diversified Major/Armenian Emphasis, Theology, Psychology with concentration in Gerontology, Psychology with concentration in Business, Forensic Psychology, Social Work, Business Administration, International Business, Computer Science, Information Technology, Political Science, Real Estate Management, Hospitality Administration & Tourism, and Education. The College also offers certificate programs in 12 academic disciplines.

The courses are open to College students, teachers and community members who wish to pursue higher education for Bachelor of Arts/Bachelor of Science degrees and/or certificate programs, or to upgrade their skills and information.

Mashdots College courses are offered at the College's Campus, 411 Acacia Avenue, in Glendale.

For registration and further information on the schedule of classes offered, contact the College at (818) 548-9345.